PROTECTIVE ORDER

Before the Court is the United States' Motion for Protective Order (ECF No. 131). The motion was submitted for consideration without oral argument on an expedited basis. The Court has reviewed the motion and the file herein, and is fully informed. The United States seeks to protect the integrity of the discovery process and the safety of the cooperating individuals in this matter and requests the Court enter a protective order. For good cause shown, the motion is granted.

1 Accordingly, it is HEREBY ORDERED:

2 1. The United States will provide discovery materials on an on-going
3 basis to defense counsel;

4 2. Defense counsel may possess but not copy (excluding the production
5 of necessary working copies) the discovery materials, including sealed documents;

6 3. Defense counsel may show to, and discuss with the Defendant the 7 discovery material, including sealed documents;

8 4. Defense counsel shall not provide original or copies of discovery
9 materials directly to the Defendant;

10 5. Defense counsel shall not otherwise provide original or copies of the 11 discovery material to any other person, including subsequently appointed or 12 retained defense counsel, and shall not leave any discovery materials unsupervised
13 with any person to include the client;

14 6. The United States and defense counsel may reference the existence
15 and content of sealed discovery material in open and closed court proceedings
16 relevant to 2:15-CR-0091-TOR-1-9; and

17 7. The parties reserve the right to seek relief from the Protective Order
18 should the need arise.
